OFFICE $1.00 PER YEAR
IN ADVANCE

AUGUST 5, 1913

NEARLY every year at crop moving time, especially if the crops are large, there is a stringency in money matters, amounting almost to the making of prosperity a burden. It is said that a few New York banks accumulated money in order to geuse the farmers at the opportune moment. But they won't be able to do so this year, for the country has a Secretary of the Treasury who does things. He has accordingly announced that he will deposit from $25,000,000 to $30,000,000 in the South and West and South for the purpose of facilitating the movement of the crops. For this money collateral of Government bonds, State and municipal bonds and prime short-term commercial paper will be accepted. The banks are to pay 2 per cent. interest. Local banks can now go to the Federal and United States Treasury and not be dependent on the New York banks. Former securities have in emergencies deposited U. S. funds with New York banks. Mr. McAdoo will send them to the sections that need the money and not give the New York banks a greater leverage to rob the farmer. Mr. McAdoo is to be commended and the country congratulated that he is in charge of the Treasury.

The first general primary under the new law seems to have passed in a satisfactory manner. In a number of counties the Democrats, Republicans and Progressives nominated tickets, while in some notably Fayette, the Democrats alone presented candidates. The Republicans and Progressives then will try to get together and nominate a fusion ticket by convention. All over the State the Democrats turned out in greater numbers than the other two parties.

In answer to a question by a lady who wants to know why he writes so much silly stuff, the Lexington Herald's incomparable parographer says it is because he is a lunatic and gets little pay. A man who can dash off as much enterprising and humorous matter every day as Gresham does ought to get as much salary as Secretary Bryan says he can't live on.

Negro Boy Held.

Vernon Embry, the paralytic negro boy who last Thursday blew out his father's brains with a gun, was this morning tried before Judge Shackelford who placed him under bond of $1,000.

Mr. Hanger's Big Contract.

Mr. H. B. Hanger, who is at home for the first time since February, took his mother, Mrs. M. M. Hanger to Winchester yesterday to take the C. & O. road to the Adirondack mountains. Mr. Hanger is 82 years of age, but still retains most of her faculties. She likes to come to Kentucky but there is no place on earth like Staunton to her.

Mr. Hanger is nearly completing a nine million dollar contract for the city of New York, including two tunnels, one 1,000 feet long and one 1,500 feet length to bring its new water supply from the mountains, embracing a tunnel under the Hudson river and other remarkable achievements.

It was 11 o'clock or later when the body was found and some 25 or 30 men and boys had gathered in the hunt. There was a slight contusion on the head, but otherwise the body showed no marks of violence. He died suddenly, and his parents are almost stricken with grief over the fearful blow that has been dealt them, and great sympathy from all in that section goes out to them. The burial occurred in the Perkins burying ground at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Let's Get Down to Business.

Now that the primary is over, let us all get down to business and see if we cannot make up for some of the time we have lost talking politics. Life is too short to devote too much of it to useless speculation as to who will win this race or that, or how John Smith or Sam Jones stands on such and such a proposition. We know men in this good town who have talked politics day and day for the past three or four months. They have seemingly forgotten business, forgotten family, forgotten everything but politics; and they were not candidates, either. They just get interested in the game and grew more and more so as the primary approached. It is time now that is is time to realize that they will go to work. They have bored many busy men, imparting to them their imaginary political wisdom. Let them give the public a much needed rest and from now on do more work with their hands and less with their tongues. Both the community and the men themselves will profit by the change.

Death of Mr. J. K. Gentry.

At about one o'clock this morning the long life of Mr. Joe Kansas Gentry came to a close. He was 81 years of age and had been feeble from the infirmities of age for several years. Last evening he performed his usual work, such as bringing in coal, feeding horse, etc. Just before he breathed his last his wife, his son, his daughter, and the rest of the family, but before anything could be done he expired. Four daughters, Mrs. O. P. Jackson, Mrs. Haywood Jones and Miss Sallie Gentry, all of this city, and Mrs. Charles Dudley, of Paris, and three sons, Messrs. Marion and Alton Gentry, of this city, and Mr. J. Gentry, of Canton, Ohio. Mr. Gentry was highly thought of and had always been a good citizen. He was an old Confederate soldier, having served under Gen. John H. Morgan. The funeral will take place at the residence on Hallie-Irvine street tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, followed by burial in Richmond Cemetery.

ECZEMA FOR 20 YEARS,
Cured by Our Reliable Skin Remedy,
Saxo Salve.

For twenty year I suffered from eczema. My skin would break out and itch and burn. I used a lot of Saxo Salve and decided to try it. After two or three applications I found great relief and before I had used one tube I was completely well. If it will benefit others who suffer from eczema you may publish my letter, when you claim Saxo Salve will do just what you claim it will.—A. Pritchett, Louisville, Ky.

It is astonishing, even to us, to see how Saxo Salve, our new remedy for skin afflictions, allays the itching, softens, soothes and heals the skin, such as eruptive barber's itch, ringworm, tetter, etc.

It is guaranteed to help you—we cheerfully give back your money if it does not.

B. L. Middleton, Druggist, Richmond

P. S. Eczema sufferers invariably need a blood tonic. Try Vinol on our guarantee.
